

WHEREAS, on April 22, 1990, the Rockville Consortium for Science, Inc. held its first Rockville Science Day and has continued Science Day as an annual event in the City of Rockville; and

WHEREAS, Science Day is a local family-oriented event designed to acquaint youth with the world of science and to help both children and grown-ups alike understand how science is used in our lives; and

WHEREAS, science lies at the heart of technological progress, space exploration, human and ecological health, and environmental concerns and Science Day provides informative and entertaining exhibits about everything from environment and nature, to reptiles and birds, space exploration, biotechnology and robotics and rockets; and

WHEREAS, on Sunday, April 28, 2013, the Rockville Consortium for Science will present its 24th Annual Rockville Science Day, which will include hands-on activities for kids of all ages and technological innovations of interest to adults.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and Council of Rockville do hereby proclaim April 28, 2013, as ROCKVILLE SCIENCE DAY in Rockville and urge all residents to participate in this opportunity and connect with science in the "real world."
